QUEEN OF SONG'S GOOD RACE.

There was general improvement at Harlem yesterday. The attendance was larger and the betting more healthy.

The track was nearly perfect and the racing action of sharp interest.

Rose Ash was a "good thing" in the first race and scored on account of the horsemanship of Cass Sloan. Strongly tipped and stoutly supported, she beat the favorite, Miss Marks, a head. As the field straightened for home six of the eight were bunched, Motive showing the way. Motive and the favorite had Sloan pocketed. He pulled to the outside and, an open length behind, began a drive that won the race and drew out the plaudits of the crowd.

"Virginia" Bradley's Miss Casey took the second event, but was fully extended to beat Skillman, the favorite, who got away last. The pair were racing by themselves at the finish.

On the strength of her good race against Heliobas and Greatland at Louisville, Queen of Song was an odds on favorite for the third race. She won, but had to do the half in 49½ to Foxnette by a narrow margin. Sloan's vigor greatly aided Foxnette.

At a mile, with only seven pounds difference in weights, W. H. Laudeman's 3-year-old, Goodrich, was liberally backed to beat old Indra. Miss Gussie carried Indra along very fast for the first three quarters. Then Goodrich—who had been under a drive from half way along the back stretch—passed the filly and challenged the old horse. Indra stalled him off—as veterans are apt to stall off kids—and in the last furlong seemed to tell him about the ambition of youth; which could be more correctly applied. Lucid seems to need a rest.

Mr. Laudeman landed the fourth race with his recent acquisition, Cambrian. King Barleycorn was a wavering favorite. The King led into the stretch. Near the furlong pole Hill appeared to cross Turner. Pulling to the outside, Turner sent Barleycorn along. Sixty yards from the finish—when both boys were riding hard—King Barleycorn swerved against Cambrian. The latter held his stride, while Barleycorn lost a couple of lengths. After weighing in Turner was called into the stand. There was some applause in anticipation of a claim of foul. Turner accused Barleycorn of swerving from the whip. The boy also declared that Hill did not shut him off at the eighth pole. Turner voluntarily took his colt back and pulled to the outside in order to get a chance to make a drive which he could not have done had he remained between Cambrian and the rail. Juggler ran well for nearly half a mile and was not urged at the finish.

B. J. Johnston's colors were carried to the front in the last race by Diggs. After Meddler and Pope Leo had shown the way to the final furlong, Dorsey brought up Diggs on the outside and won by a length. Had Turner been able to get through on the inside, Parson might have been second—if not a winner. Lew Hopper finished stoutly.

Sam Hildreth, Jockey Clawson and Dr. H. E. Rowell arrived yesterday from San Francisco. The horses are all in good condition. Although inclined to be frisky, Satsuma looked all over the good horse that he is. There were ten in Dr. Rowell's lot. Satsuma, Collins, Bernardillo, Tom Cromwell, Sybaris, Abina, St Kristine, Telebrae, Cloisonne, and an unnamed 2-year-old colt, by Macduff. Bernardillo is the property of Trainer James Coffey, who purchased him from E. J. Baldwin.

Sam Hildreth's lot were Caesarian, Judge Denny, Cash Day, All Over, Bellicosio, Fonsavannah, Hurly Burly, St. Callatine and Taluca.

Dates for the following Harlem stakes were announced yesterday:

Illinois Stakes, selling, 6½ furlongs, for 3-year-olds and upward: Saturday, June 4.

Graduate Stakes, ½ mile, for 2-year-old colts: Wednesday, June 8.

Riverside Stakes, selling, ¾ mile, for 3-year-olds: Saturday, June 11.

Gene Leigh found Heliobas coughing and decided not to start him at Cincinnati yesterday. The trouble is slight, but sufficient to defer the shipment of the colt here for a week.

THOS. J. GALLAGHER.

THE BROOKLYN HANDICAP.

The first of the two great handicap races of the eastern turf, the Brooklyn, will be decided at Gravesend track to-morrow. Precisely what horses will start will of course only be settled to-morrow, but Ornament, 128; Ben Holladay, 121; On Deck, 119; Tillo, 118; Dr. Catlett, 117; Don d'Oro, 113; Lehman, 114; Royal Stag, 110; Semper Ego, 106; Previous, 104; Lou Bramble, 104; Traverser, 98; and Sly Fox, 92, have been doing such good, hearty work or have already shown so well in racing that it is expected they will all go to the post.

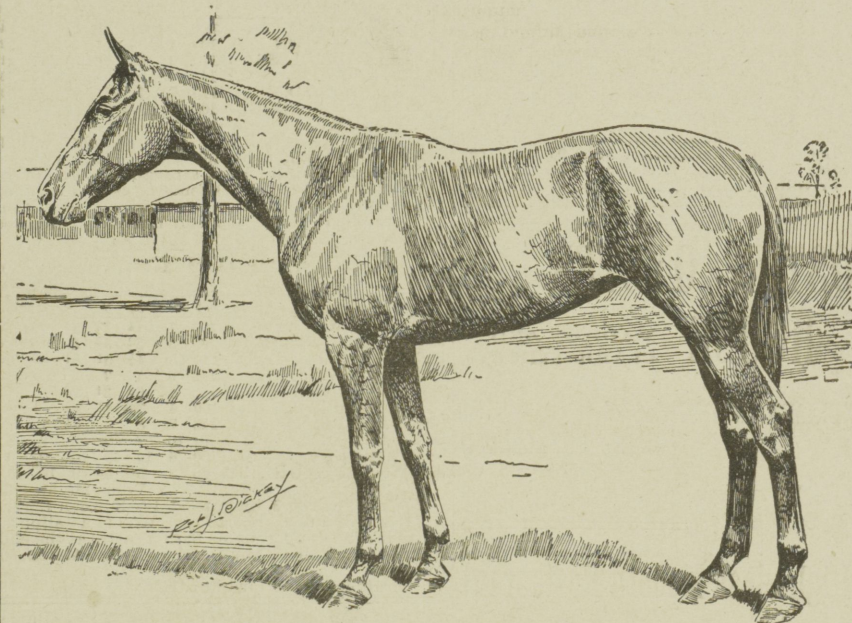

track the colt worked half a mile in 0:49½. He was sick all spring, though, and has only recently rounded to. He has shown something of his early speed in his two races at Oakley.—Cincinnati Enquirer.

Hinde & Baker of the Millwood Stud, Ky., in combination with Milton Young of the McGrathiana Stud, and L. P. Tarleton of the Fleetwood Stud, will have a big sale of yearlings in Chicago July 11 which will include choice youngsters by such sires as Hanover, Patron, Order, Strathmore, Lamplighter, Wagner and Aintree.

Jockey Joe Scherrer was indefinitely suspended by the Oakley judges Wednesday for pulling up the favorite, Rose Apple, just as the barrier went up, an action that caused her to be practically left at the post.

The good steeplechase horse, Lion Heart, and his owner-jockey, Stallcup, were ruled off at Toronto Tuesday because Stallcup ran the horse plainly unfit and made no effort to win with him.

There is to be a special day's racing at Oakland today under the auspices of the California and Pacific Coast Jockey Clubs for the benefit of the Red Cross Society.

BARNEY SCHREIBER'S GOOD FILLY MISS MARION.

This would constitute a very fine field indeed, and one that would require keen judgment to make a winning selection from. Top weight and all, Ornament is likely to prove the favorite. The famous son of Order is reported to have trained on in the most satisfactory way possible, and can be depended on to run a great race. Eastern opinion is that Sly Fox has a fairly good chance. Precedents are against 3-year-olds winning such a race, but Sly Fox is in so light and has been running so well of late that it appears probable he will cut quite a figure in the Brooklyn.

NOTES OF THE TURF.

L. Pillott, Jr., seems to have "rounded to." Two races in four days is a pretty good showing. The son of Longsides, according to a well-known trainer, worked faster in the early part of the season at New Orleans than any two-year-old down there. Before the first race for two-year-olds was run at the Crescent City

Eddie Jones is to be given another chance. He was reinstated by the stewards of the California Jockey Club last Saturday.

OAKLEY POOLING.

WASHINGTON PARK OFFICIALS.

As soon as it was definitely known that racing was to be resumed at Washington Park this year quite a number of writers showed wonderful alacrity in providing the club with racing officials.

In former days when racing at Washington Park was one of the important annual Chicago features the club's affairs were very strictly run by the club's officers and directors and from the list of appointments for the coming meeting, which DAILY RACING FORM here lays before its readers, it is manifest that the old habit of attending to its own business without consulting outsiders still clings to the club. It is well that it is so.

C. H. Pettingill is to be presiding judge. This will be a surprise because of Mr. Pettingill's long identification with the starter's position. But he is well qualified to discharge the duties of his new position. He has been in the judges' stand before, and because of his many years of association with racing as owner, starter and judge should be thoroughly competent. Mr. Pettingill is well known in Chicago, and his appointment will be received with approbation.

His associates will be John W. Kelsey and John F. Morse. Mr. Kelsey is the assistant secretary of the club and has the advantage of experience gained in several years' service as judge in the stands at the Indiana tracks, Ingalls Park and Harlem. Mr. Morse is manager of the Board of Trade firm of Robert Pringle & Co. He is a new-comer in the judges' stand, but is a profound student of horse lore and in Mr. Howard's opinion sure to make an efficient racing judge.

Richard Dwyer will do the starting. No more popular selection could have been made.

As to the minor positions, Harry Kuhl is to be clerk of the scales and Hugh E. Keogh patrol judge.

"I HAVE STUDIED YOUR BOOK, 'HORSE RACING, OR THE ART OF MAKING MONEY AT THE RACE TRACK' and I don't see that there is any room for criticism, for I think that anyone who has played the races can't help but see that every word is true. I think there is more to be learned in 15 minutes reading it than any ordinary man could learn in as many years by simply following the races," writes an ardent admirer of this handsome and sensible little book, which is issued free to readers of DAILY RACING FORM on application to the publishers, A. F. Withe & Co., 720 Omaha Building, Chicago, Ill. Everyone interested in the noble sport should read it.

Post 8 minutes. Start good. Won in a long, hard drive of two; the third and fourth were driving hard. Rose Ash was best ridden. Jockeys reversed. Miss Marks could not have lost. Sloan rode a powerful finish. Zahn wobbled all over Miss Marks in the stretch. Miss Dooley had all the bad luck in the race. She was crowded into the fence and obliged to pull up on the far turn. Motive showed early speed, but quit when the pinch came. Cora Havill II was hard driven the entire route.

Winner—Br. m. 5, by Patton—Annie Shelby.
Off at first break to a good start. Won cleverly; next two driving. Miss Casey was the speediest. She was nicely handled, too. Skillman, off poorly, ran a good race. Warren Point and Inconstancy were interfered with at the start. The latter will do to watch. So will Theresa H. She showed a lot of speed down the back stretch, but was sharply cut off and obliged to pull up just after passing the half mile ground. Gold Corn and Blue Jacket suffered from bad handling. Incetatus had his usual turn of speed.

Overweights—Theresa H, 2 pounds.

Winner—Br. f. by Esher—Sonata.
Post 3 minutes. Start good. Won in a mild drive; second and third ridden out. Queen of Song was the best. Hill took matters easy with the filly, but was obliged to shake her up some at the end. He also impeded Foxnette in the stretch, but not enough to affect the result. Lemoon got a running start and showed speed. Babe Robertson ran a bad race and Rosa L a good one. Hermione seems to be of little account.

Post 6 minutes. Start good. Won easily; second eased up, after an early drive. Indra was far the best and played with his field. He ran in blinkers for the first time. He was less insane than usual at the post. Goodrich ran his race. Hill rode him hard all the way. Miss Gussie was pumped out racing with Indra in the first six furlongs. She likes both weight and distance off. Lucid ran a dull race.

Winner—Ch. c. by Hindoo—Cambria.
Post 3 minutes. Start good. The two leaders were driving. Cambrian ran a smart race, and was nicely ridden. King Barleycorn seemed to have a winning chance below the sixteen pole, but swerved badly when Turner used the whip. Cambrian was lucky in not being cut down. Juggler was always outrun. The last two were outclassed.

Winner—B. g. 6, by Red Iron—Lillie Wright.
Post 10 minutes. Start good. Won in a long hard drive of three. All the others were busy. Diggs was a good horse. He had to be, in order to win. Dorsey got him sharply cut off and was obliged to pull up and go around his field on the far turn. Meddler ran a much improved race. He acted queerly at the post and was interfered with in the stretch. He doesn't relish trouble. Pope Leo was the offender. The Pope was a trifle short and bore in under punishment when pinched. Watch this fellow from now on. He has a lot of speed and some quality. Parson and Lew Hopper both finished strong. The latter was short on speed early and did not quite run his race. Parson at his best is an uncertain horse.

Post 5 minutes. Start fair. Won easily; second and third driving hard. Rosa Masso ran a game race. She was knocked about until the stretch turn, and came home like a whirlwind. M rode showed much improvement. Dottie showed a good burst of speed. Banda Rossa tired in last furlong. Myosotis went down and Thanksgiving tumbled over her.

Winner—Br. f. by Jim Gore—Piquante. Post 6 minutes. Start poor. Won cleverly; second and third driving. Willie Howard is not the filly she is rated. Burns, however, could have won further off. Judge Tarvin is a most promising colt. Dr. Sam was off badly and ran around his field. He closed strong. Tobe Paine had a lot of speed. Watch him. Scratched—Dandy H, 113; Very Light, 110; Dora Hawk, 110; Logan Laudeman, 106.

Winner—B. c. by Falsetto—Gelida. Post 1 minute. Start fair. Won ridden out. It was a drive for the place. Montedonico was the best. He was allowed to fall out of it at the first turn, but closed a lot of ground. He had to run around his field at the finish. Naoma does not like a route. The Professor is improving. Laverna quit to nothing. Scratched—Hurdler, 102. Overweights—Maltese, 2 pounds; Mace Russell, 2.

Winner—B. f. 3, by Buckmaster—Pick Up. Post 1 minute. Start good. Won cleverly; second well in hand. Found always held her field safe. She was under a strong pull to the stretch. Elusive looked a trifle high. The race should help both her and Gold Band. Found is a good filly.

5973 FOURTH RACE—4 1-2 Furlongs. Purse $300. 2-year-olds. Allowances.

Winner—B. c. by Bramble—Ill Wind. Post 10 minutes. Start poor. Won cleverly; second and third driving. Ben Bramble is a good colt and a half brother to Ed Farrell. Pirate Judge is a bad actor and far from being a high-class horse. Lee Bruno ran his race. Ridgeway ran green and bolted at the eighth pole. Racing will improve him.

5974 FIFTH RACE—5 1-2 Furlongs. Purse $300. 3-year-olds and upward. Selling.
